

SOCIETY FOR INDUSTRIAL ARCHEOLOGY

The Southern and Northern New England Chapters Present the 20th ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM

on

INDUSTRIAL ARCHEOLOGY IN THE NEW ENGLAND AREA

Saturday, February 24, ~~2005~~ 2007

9:30 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.

Clark University - Jefferson Academic Center - Room 218-Worcester, Massachusetts

9:30 A.M. - Registration

10:00 A.M. Words of Welcome - Jonathan Kranz, President SNEC-SIA

PRESENTATIONS

10:15 A.M. - The Windsor Locks Canal

Maria Giannuzzi - Windsor Locks, Connecticut

11:00 A.M. - Norcross Brothers, Contractors and Builders, of Worcester, Massachusetts and the Beginnings of General Building Contracting in the United States

Sara E. Wermiel, Ph.D - Visiting Scholar, MIT

11:45 A.M. - The History of L-Street Power Station, South Boston: Construction Photographs Beginning in 1898.

Gilmore G. Cooke, P.E. - IEEE Boston Section History Committee

12:00 - 1:00 P.M. - Lunch: On site and included in registration fee

1:15 P.M Screens, Wires, and Traps: the Gilbert and Bennett Wire Factory
Georgetown, CT

Cece Saunders - Historical Perspectives

2:00 P.M. - Lenticular Truss Bridges

Dr. Alan J. Lutenegeger, Ph.D, P.E., - University of Massachusetts

2:45 P.M. - Design and Construction of Early Underground Roadways

Cranston Rogers, P.E. - Maguire Group (ret.) - Boston Section A.S.C.E.

3:00 P.M. Show & Tell

Attendees who wish to discuss works in progress or other IA miscellany may present updates limited to 10 minutes each. Please contact Bob Stewart at robert.stewart13@att.net to schedule your Show & Tell discussion.