Stop at the historic marker at Furnace Flat for more copper mine history. After 9.3 miles, enter I-89 northbound. Get off at the next exit (#3 after 8.5 miles) and turn left onto Rt-107 east. Note Waterman Rd. on the immediate left just before the Irving station for the next leg: GW Plastics. But now go a half mile to Eaton's Sugar House for lunch. The road runs right into it.

After lunch, to GW Plastics and then to Green Mountain Feeds, 3.2 miles west on Rt-107 to Bethel. Park on the left beyond the grain elevators. Returning home, it's 30 minutes down I-89 to White River Junction.
