The Southern New England Chapter of the Society for Industrial Archeology invites proposals for papers to be presented at the 32nd annual New England Industrial Archeology Conference. The conference is alternately hosted by the Southern New England and Northern New England Chapters as a forum for presenting research into our industrial heritage. The conference is provisionally planned to be held on Saturday, March 30th, 2019 at Clark University, 950 Main Street, Worcester, MA, in the Jefferson Academic Center, Room 218. Further announcements will be sent by e-mail once the date and venue have been confirmed.

Papers are welcomed on all topics related to industrial history, archeology, manufacturing, preservation, engineering, architecture, etc., in New England and elsewhere. Proposals may be submitted for individual papers, team papers, or reports on works-in-progress. The time limit for each presenter will be 30 minutes. Student papers are welcomed. Presenters do not need to be SIA or chapter members.

Format: Each presentation proposal must include (1) title; (2) an abstract of not more than 300 words; (3) a brief resume of the author(s), including postal address, telephone and e-mail; (4) final presentations shall be in MS Powerpoint, or presenters may bring their own laptops for connection to the a/v equipment.

Deadline: Proposals must be received by February 15, 2019.

Send proposals via e-mail to: Conference Coordinator, Peter Stott at ph.stott@gmail.com or by USPS to P.H. Stott, 33 Shirley St., Roxbury, MA 02119
