

The Southern New England Chapter of the Society for Industrial Archeology presents the 36th Annual New England Conference on Industrial Archeology

Date: Saturday, April 26, 2025
Location: Attleboro Area Industrial Museum, 42 Union St., Attleboro, MA
Home - Attleboro Area Industrial Museum
Registration starts at 9:30 a.m.
Program: Presentations 10 a.m.-3:15 p.m.
Tour 3:30 p.m.-4:30 p.m.

Program: Speakers and Subjects, Tour

John Mayer Home as Industrial Artifact: a work in progress
Betsey Dyer The First Telephones in Walpole Mass: Why? Who?
Sara Wermiel Shoe Factories in Massachusetts: Distinctive Architecture
John Mayer SIA's Strategic Planning
Lunch, SNEC annual meeting
Dennis DeWitt Early Iron Works: Roofs and Trusses
Emily Burns The Landscape of a Working River: Geology and Industry of the Pawtuxet
Carleton Legg A Brief History of Attleboro's Industrial Past

Tour of Dodgeville Mill, 453 South Main St., Attleboro
Tour of a very historic former textile mill site, listed in the National Register of Historic Places, led by the Attleboro Historic Preservation Society.

Cost: $10 each for members of SNEC or NNEC and one family member; $20 each for non-members, which includes a one year of membership in SNEC. Lunch and tour included in the cost. Lunch will be sandwiches (some meatless), chips, cookies, and soft drinks. If you have food allergies or special dietary requirements, please bring your own lunch.

Registration for 36th Annual New England Conference on Industrial Archaeology

Name(s) _____

Address _____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

Member SNEC _____ NNEC _____

Number attending the presentations _____

Number attending the tour _____

Enclosed is a check for $_____ Please make checks out to SNEC-SIA.

Please mail registration form and payment to:

Leonard Henkin, SNEC Secretary, 134 Perham St., West Roxbury, MA 02132

Email for questions: lah2004@gmail.com